APPENDIX 1 – PRESCRIBED FORM TO BE COMPLETED BY A REQUESTER

APPENDIX 2 – REPRODUCTION FEES

1 DEFINITIONS

Customer	A natural or juristic person who is an existing FirstRand group customer or a person who provided their personal/special personal information to the FirstRand group in the context of a sale of acquiring goods or services.
Data subject	Means the person to whom PI relates. In reference to the FirstRand group, this primarily but without limitation means customers, employees and operators/suppliers, other persons and third parties.
Employee/s	Refers to any natural person who works for, or provides services to, or on behalf of the FirstRand group, and receives or is entitled to receive remuneration, and any other person who assists in carrying out or conducting the business of the FirstRand group. This includes, without limitation, directors (executive and non-executive), all permanent, temporary and part-time staff, as well as contract workers.
Operator	Means a person who processes personal information for a responsible party in terms of a contract or mandate, without coming under the direct authority of that party.
FirstRand or the group	Means FirstRand Limited and its South African subsidiaries (as defined in the Companies Act 2008), (including, divisions, segments, and business units), but specifically excludes subsidiaries, where such entity is a subsidiary as a result of an investment by any one of RMB's private equity businesses (predominantly legally structured under FirstRand Investment Holdings (Pty) Ltd (FRIHL)). However, this manual may apply to the abovementioned excluded subsidiaries and other companies associated with FirstRand, if agreed to by FirstRand and the relevant subsidiary or associated entity in writing. Confirmation as to whether this manual applies to a specific entity associated with the FirstRand group can be sought through the mechanisms set out in this manual.
Personal information (PI)	Means personal information relating to an identifiable, living, natural person, and where it is applicable, an identifiable, existing juristic person, including, but not limited to: (a) information relating to the race, gender, sex, pregnancy, marital status, national, ethnic or social origin, colour, sexual orientation, age, physical or mental health, well-being, disability, religion, conscience, belief, culture, language and birth of the person; (b) information relating to the education or the medical, financial, criminal or employment history of the person; (c) any identifying number, symbol, email address, physical address, telephone number, location information, online identifier or other particular assignment to the person; (d) biometric information of the person; (e) personal opinions, views or preferences of the person;

	(f) correspondence sent by the person that is implicitly or explicitly of a private or confidential nature or further correspondence that would reveal the contents of the original correspondence; (g) views or opinions of another individual about the person; and (h) the name of the person if it appears with other PI relating to the person, or if the disclosure of the name itself would reveal information about the person; In reference to this manual, PI must be seen primarily but without limitation as PI of group customers; employees and suppliers, other persons and third parties.
Responsible party	Means a public or private body or any other person which, alone or in conjunction with others, determines the purpose of and means for processing PI. In reference to this manual, the responsible parties are the FirstRand entities as defined above.
Special personal information (SPI)	Means any PI of a data subject, concerning— (a) the religious or philosophical beliefs, race or ethnic origin, trade union membership, political persuasion, health or sex life or biometric information of a data subject; or (b) the criminal behaviour of a data subject to the extent that such information relates to— (i) the alleged commission by a data subject of any offence; or (ii) any proceedings in respect of any offence allegedly committed by a data subject or the disposal of such proceedings.

2 IMPORTANT

This manual applies to the FirstRand group as defined above. The defined FirstRand entities are responsible parties. A simplified group structure highlighting some of the group's major subsidiaries and businesses is available on the group's website at <https://www.firstrand.co.za/the-group/ownership-and-legal-structure/>.

This document explains how the various businesses comprising the FirstRand group will process personal information (PI).

3 INTRODUCTION

The Promotion of Access to Information Act 2 of 2000 (as amended from time to time) (PAIA) gives effect to the constitutional right of access to any information in records held by public or private bodies that is required for the exercise or protection of any rights. Where a party wishes to request information which they do not have a direct right to, but which information is needed in order to protect a right of their own, they will use the procedure set out in the PAIA manual to request such information. This PAIA manual provides an outline of the types of records and the personal information (PI) held by FirstRand and sets out the procedure to request access to these records and personal information, the requirements which such request must meet, as well as the grounds for refusal or partial refusal of such request. In addition, it explains how to access PI held by FirstRand in terms of Sections 23 and 25 of the Protection of Personal Information Act 4 of 2013 (POPIA). Requests for access to PI will be responded to within a reasonable time.

PAIA and POPIA recognise that the right of access to information cannot be unlimited and should be subject to justifiable limitations, including, but not limited to:

- limitations aimed at the reasonable protection of privacy;
- commercial confidentiality; and
- effective, efficient and good governance;

and in a manner which balances that right with any other rights, including such rights contained in the Bill of Rights in the Constitution of the Republic of South Africa, Act 108 of 1996, as amended and POPIA.

This right of access may not be used to access records under criminal or civil proceedings, or where such proceedings have commenced.

This manual informs requesters of procedural and other requirements that a request must meet as prescribed by PAIA and POPIA. A requester has the right to submit a request, after providing adequate proof of identity and after payment of any fee required by law (if applicable) under Appendix 2.

6 RECORDS OF THE FIRSTRAND GROUP

This paragraph serves as a reference to the records that the FirstRand group holds.

It is recorded that the accessibility of the records listed below, may be subject to the grounds of refusal set out hereinafter.

The information is classified and grouped according to records relating to the subjects and categories outlined below.

6.1 Employee records

Employees do not need to use the PAIA/POPIA process to obtain such records. Examples of employee records include the following:

- personal records provided by employees;
- records provided by a third party relating to employees;
- conditions of employment and other employee-related contractual and quasi-legal records;
- internal evaluation records and other internal records; correspondence relating to employees; and
- training schedules and material.

6.2 Customer-related records

Records provided by a customer directly to the group, including:

- records provided by a customer to a third party acting for or on behalf of the group;
- records provided by a third party; and
- records generated by or within the group relating to its customers, including transactional records.

6.3 Private body records

Examples of private body records are the following:

- Financial records
- Operational records
- Databases
- Information technology
- Marketing records
- Internal and external correspondence
- Product records
- Statutory records
- Internal policies and procedures
- Supervisory body-related records
- Securities and equities
- Records held by officials of the group

These records include, but are not limited to, the records which pertain to the group's own affairs.

6.4 Other records

Employee, customer or private body records, which are held by another party, as opposed to the records held by the group itself.

Records held by the group pertaining to other parties, including without limitation, financial records, correspondence, contractual records, records provided by the other party, and records third parties have provided about contractors/suppliers.

- The group may possess records pertaining to other parties, including without limitation contractors, job applicants, operators (suppliers and third parties). Alternatively, such other parties may possess records that can be said to belong to the group.

6.5 Records automatically available

The following categories of records are automatically available for inspection. A copy of the record is available for purchase at the costs indicated in Appendix 2. You do not need to request these records in terms of PAIA.

These categories are:

- any promotional material for public viewing;
- posters;
- campaigns;
- product information.

7 PROCESSING OF PERSONAL INFORMATION

The group takes the privacy and protection of PI very seriously and will only process PI in accordance with the current South African privacy legislation (POPIA) or any other applicable legislation which deals with privacy rights. Accordingly, the relevant PI privacy conditions and requirements relating to the processing thereof (including, but not limited to, the collection, handling, transfer, sharing, correction, storage, archiving and deletion of personal information) will be applied to any PI processed by the group.

7.1 The purpose for the FirstRand group processing personal information

The group processes PI for a variety of purposes, where legally justified to do so. FirstRand maintains separate privacy notices that incorporates the purposes for processing. These notices are available on FirstRand's website (<https://www.firstrand.co.za/investors/governance-and-compliance/>).

7.2 Categories of data subjects and PI processed by the FirstRand group

Categories of data subjects and PI processed by the group include the following:

	Surveillance records (like CCTV footage)
	Biometric information

7.3 Recipients or categories with whom PI is shared

7.3.1 The group may share the PI of its data subjects, where legally justified to do so, for any of the purposes outlined in paragraph 7.1, with the following parties (among others):

- other FirstRand group companies and in other countries; and
- the group's service providers, operators (suppliers and third parties) who perform services on its behalf.

- 7.3.2 The group does not share the PI of its data subjects with any third parties, except if:
- it is obliged to provide such information for legal or regulatory purposes;
 - it is required to do so for purposes of existing or future legal proceedings;
 - it is selling one or more of its businesses or part of its businesses to a third party to whom it may transfer its rights under any agreement it may have with data subjects;
 - it is involved in the prevention of fraud, loss, bribery or corruption;
 - the third party performs services and processes PI on the group's behalf as its operator;
 - this is required to provide or manage any information, products and/or services to data subjects; or
 - this is needed to help the group improve the quality of its products and services.
- 7.3.3 The group will send its data subjects appropriate notifications or communications of its processing if it is obliged to do so by law, or in terms of its contractual relationship with data subjects.
- 7.3.4 The group will only disclose PI to government authorities if it is required to do so by law.
- 7.3.5 The group's employees and suppliers are required to adhere to legislation relating to privacy and confidentiality principles and to complete privacy training.

7.4 Information security measures to protect personal information

- 7.4.1 Reasonable technical and organisational measures have been implemented for the protection of PI processed by the group and its operators (suppliers and third parties). In terms of POPIA, operators (suppliers and third parties) process PI on behalf of the group.
- 7.4.2 The group continuously implement and monitor technical and organisational security measures to protect the PI it holds, against unauthorised access, as well as accidental or wilful manipulation, loss, damage, or destruction.
- 7.4.3 The group will take steps to ensure that operators (suppliers and third parties) that process PI on its behalf apply adequate safeguards as outlined under 7.4.1 and 7.4.2.

7.5 Cross-border flows of personal information

- 7.5.1 The group will only transfer PI across South African borders if the relevant transactions or situation requires cross-border processing. It will only do so in accordance with South African legislative requirements, or if the data subject consents to the transfer of their PI to third parties in foreign countries.
- 7.5.2 The group will take steps to ensure that operators (suppliers and third parties) in foreign countries are bound by laws, binding corporate rules or binding agreements that provide an adequate level of protection of PI and uphold principles for reasonable and lawful processing of personal information, in terms of POPIA.
- 7.5.3 The group will take steps to ensure that operators (suppliers and third parties) that process PI in jurisdictions outside of South Africa, apply adequate safeguards as outlined in section 7.4 above.

7.6 PI received from third parties

When the group receives PI from a third party on behalf of a data subject, it requires confirmation that the third party has a lawful justification in terms of section 11 of POPIA, to share such information with the group.

8 GROUNDS FOR REFUSAL OF ACCESS TO RECORDS

The main grounds for the group to refuse a request for records relates to the mandatory protection–

- of the privacy of a third party who is a natural person, which would involve the unreasonable disclosure of PI of that natural person;
- of the commercial information of a third party, if the record contains –
 - i. trade secrets of that third party;
 - ii. financial, commercial, scientific or technical information which disclosure could likely cause harm to the financial or commercial interests of that third party;
 - iii. information disclosed in confidence by a third party to the group, if the disclosure could put that third party at a disadvantage in negotiations or commercial competition;
- of confidential information of third parties if disclosing such would or could constitute a breach of the duty of confidence owed to a third party in terms of any agreement;
- of the safety of individuals and the protection of property;
- of records which would be regarded as privileged in legal proceedings;
- of the commercial activities of the group, which may include–
 - i. trade secrets of the group;
 - ii. financial, commercial, scientific or technical information which disclosure could likely cause harm to the financial or commercial interests of the group;
 - iii. information which, if disclosed, could put the group at a disadvantage in negotiations or commercial competition;
 - iv. a computer programme which is owned by the group, and which is protected by copyright.
- of the research information of the group or a third party, if its disclosure would disclose the identity of the group, the researcher or the subject matter of the research and would place the research at a serious disadvantage.

Requests for information that are clearly frivolous or vexatious, or which involve an unreasonable diversion of resources, shall be refused.

8.1 Access to records held by the FirstRand group

- 8.1.1 Records held by the group may be accessed only once the prerequisite requirements for access have been met.
- 8.1.2 A requester is any person making a request for access to a record of the group. There are two types of requesters:

Personal requester

- 8.1.3 A personal requester is a requester who is seeking access to a record that relates to their PI (as defined in PAIA and POPIA).
- 8.1.4 Subject to the provisions of this manual, PAIA, POPIA and other applicable laws, the group will provide the requested information or give access to any record regarding the requester's personal information. The prescribed fee for reproduction of the information requested will be charged as indicated in Appendix 2.

Other requester

- 8.1.5 This requester (other than a personal requester) is entitled to request access to information on third parties. The requester must fulfil the prerequisite requirements for access in terms of PAIA, including the payment of a request and access fee.
- 8.1.6 If a public body lodges a request, the public body must be acting in the public interest and provide details of the public interest that it is seeking to protect/rely on.

8.2 Remedies available when the FirstRand group refuses a request for information

8.2.1 Internal remedies

The group does not have internal appeal procedures. As such, the decision made by the information officer is final, and requestors will have to exercise such external remedies at their disposal if the request for information is refused and the requestor is not satisfied with the answer supplied by the information officer.

8.2.2 External remedies

Subject to the provisions of PAIA, a requestor that is dissatisfied with an information officer's refusal to disclose information, may within 180 days of notification of the decision, apply to a court or to the information regulator for relief.

Likewise, a third party dissatisfied with an information officer's decision to grant a request for information, may within 180 days of notification of the decision, apply to the information regulator or to a court with appropriate jurisdiction for relief.

Notice of Appeal, Form B, in terms of Section 75 of PAIA [Regulation 8], can be found on the website of the information regulator under the "Documents" section (www.justice.gov.za/inforeg).

8.3 Request procedure

The following procedural requirements serve as guidelines for requestors.

- 8.3.1 The requester must comply with all the procedural requirements contained in PAIA relating to the request for access to a record.
- 8.3.2 The requester must complete the prescribed form enclosed in Appendix 1, and submit same as well as payment of a request fee and a deposit, if applicable, to the information officer at the postal or physical address, fax number or email address as stated in section 4 of this document.
- 8.3.3 The prescribed form must be completed with sufficient detail to at least enable the information officer to identify—
 1. record or records requested;
 2. proof of identity of the requester;
 3. which form of access is required, if the request is granted; and
 4. postal address or email address of the requester.
- 8.3.4 The requester must state the nature of the right for which access to the requested records is required. The courts have indicated that access to the records must be “necessary” for the exercise or protection of the right so stated. This right of access may not be used to access records under criminal or civil proceedings, or where such proceedings have commenced. This right of access only applies to records in existence at the time of request.
- 8.3.5 Subject to the provisions in PAIA, in respect of extensions, the group will process the request within 30 days from when the request is received and the fee is paid, or within any extension timeline, unless the requester has stated special reasons which would satisfy the information officer that circumstances dictate that the above time periods could not be complied with. The group cannot grant extensions less than 21 days for third-party requests as outlined under point 8.3.6 below.
- 8.3.6 Where a requester (other than a personal requester) has requested access to information on a third party, PAIA provides that the third party whose information is requested must be given 21 days in which to make representations to refuse access or give written consent for the disclosure of the record to the requester. It may not always be possible for the group to comply with all refuse representations. For example, when a court order had been served for the access.
- 8.3.7 The requester shall be informed in the manner indicated by the requester in Appendix 1, part H whether access has been granted or denied. If, in addition, the requester requires the reasons for the decision in any other manner, he must state the manner, which will be provided if possible, to do so. If access is denied, the requester is entitled to a refund of the fees paid, in which instance, the group will seek account details from the requester in order to give effect to payment of any refund.
- 8.3.8 If a request is made on behalf of another person, the requester must submit proof of the capacity in which the requester is making the request to the reasonable satisfaction of the information officer.

8.3.9 If an individual is unable to complete the prescribed form because of illiteracy or disability, such a person may make the request orally, which must then be reduced into writing by the person assisting the requester.

8.3.10 The requester must pay the prescribed fee, before any further processing can take place.

8.4 Prescribed fees

8.4.1 PAIA provides for two types of fees, namely:

1. a request fee, which will be a standard fee; and
2. an access fee, which must be calculated by considering reproduction costs, search and preparation time and cost, as well as postal costs.

8.4.2 When the request is received by the information officer, the information officer shall by notice require the requester (other than a personal requester) to pay the prescribed request fee (if any) before further processing of the request.

8.4.3 If the search for the record has been made and the preparation of the record for disclosure, including arrangement to make it available in the requested form, requires more than the hours prescribed in the regulations of PAIA for this purpose, the information officer shall notify the requester to pay as a deposit the prescribed portion of the access fee which would be payable if the request is granted.

8.4.4 The information officer shall withhold a record until the requester has paid the fees as indicated in Appendix 2.

8.4.5 A requester whose request for access to a record has been granted, must pay an access fee for reproduction and for search and preparation, and for any time reasonably required more than the prescribed hours to search for and prepare the record for disclosure including planning to make it available in the request form.

8.4.6 If a deposit has been paid in respect of a request for access, which is refused, then the information officer concerned must repay the deposit to the requester.

8.5 Decision

8.5.1 The group will, within 30 business days (excludes weekends and public holidays), but not less than 21 days, after receipt of the request, decide whether to grant or decline the request and notify the requester in the manner indicated by the requester in Appendix 1, Part H, by giving reasons (if required) to that effect, to the requester. Only in exceptional circumstances can this time line be less than 21 days.

8.5.2 The 30-business day period within which the group must decide whether to grant or refuse the request may be extended for a further period of not more than 30 days if the request is for a large amount of information, or the request requires a search for information held at another office of the group and the information cannot reasonably be obtained within the original 30 business day period. Should an extension of time be required, the group will notify the requester in the manner indicated by the requester in Appendix 1, Part H.

8.6 Records not found

- 8.6.1 If all reasonable steps have been taken to find a record and such record cannot be found or the record does not exist, then the group shall notify the requester, by way of an affidavit or affirmation, that it is not possible to give access to the requested record.
- 8.6.2 The affidavit or affirmation shall provide a full account of all the steps taken to find the record or determine its existence, including details of all communications by the group with every person who conducted the search.
- 8.6.3 The notice in paragraph 8.6.1 above shall be regarded as a decision to refuse a request for access to the record concerned for purposes of PAIA.
- 8.6.4 If the record in question is later found, the requester shall be given access to the record in the manner stipulated by the requester in Appendix 1, Part H, unless access is refused by the group as set out in this manual.

8.7 List of applicable legislation

An excerpt of the relevant legislation setting out a description of the records of the group will be provided on request.

9 AVAILABILITY OF THE MANUAL

This manual is made available in terms of regulation number R.187 of 15 February 2002 of PAIA.

This manual will be available on the group's website (www.firstrand.co.za) and may be amended from time to time.

Alternatively, a copy can be requested from the Company Secretary (see contact details in section 4)
